TRIPLE MASTER INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

*Two-year programme (M1 & M2) available for B.Sc.
and B.A. graduates, jointly offered by three universities.
Université d'Angers (France),
Università degli Studi di Macerata (Italy),
Uniwersytet Mikołaja Kopernika w Toruniu (Poland).*

The Triple Master International Finance is offered by the University of Angers, within the framework of a triple diploma agreement with the universities of Macerata (Italy) and Torun (Poland). Graduates obtain master degrees from all three institutions.

Graduates obtain master degrees from all three institutions. The programme aims to educate future professionals in corporate finance and market finance working in an intercultural context. Classes are dispensed by high-level scholars and professionals. Students are taught to use the tools of economic analysis in independent personal study.

— Structure

The Triple Master International Finance is a two-year programme within the Bologna system (M1 and M2). The four semesters are organised as follows:

In the first semester, students attend classes in their respective home institutions, following the programmes of the Master of Economics (Torun); the Master in Finance (Angers); and the Master in Markets and Financial Institutions (Macerata). These classes are held both in English and in the local language. In Angers, the relevant modules are: Communication (4 ECTS), Finance de marché (8 ECTS), Droit (6 ECTS), Gestion (6 ECTS), and Law & Finance (6 ECTS).

In the second semester, students from France and Poland move to Italy to follow the curriculum of the Master in Markets and Financial Institutions at the University of Macerata. All classes are dispensed in English. The programme features classes in Investment Analysis and Financial Risk Management (6 ECTS), Advanced International Trade (6 ECTS), Mathematical Models for Economics and Finance (6 ECTS), International Marketing (9 ECTS), and Economic Policy and Financial Crisis (3 ECTS).

In the third semester, all students move to France to attend the classes of the Master in Law and Finance at the University of Angers. All classes are given in English and concern the following fields: Corporate Finance (8 ECTS), Financial Regulation (10 ECTS), Law & Economics (10 ECTS), and Optionnal Classes (2 ECTS).

In the fourth semester, all students move to Poland and pursue with the programme of the Master programme in Economics at the Nicolaus Copernicus University of Torun. All classes are dispensed in English: Academic Writing and Research Seminars (8 ECTS), Financial Analysis and Managerial Accounting (6 ECTS), Portfolio Theory (6 ECTS). Each student will also have to write a Master Thesis (10ECTS).

At the end of the two years, all student who have obtained 120 ECTS graduate with three Master degrees.

— Admission Requirements

Candidates must have graduated with an honours bachelor degree, or equivalent, in economics or business. Double-majors in law and economics or in law and finance are strongly encouraged to apply.

Students with foreign degrees may also apply.

Attention: this Double Master is currently not open to foreign students living in countries with a Campus France procedure, due to inconsistent recruitment schedules.

The programme is available for full-time study. We are currently unable to accommodate part-time students

— Admission Process

To apply and know all the dates of the admission process, scan the QR code on the front of this sheet to access the Triple Master webpage, then refer to the Admission section.

Applications are possible until early March.

Candidates should submit an Erasmus+ application package which includes a full and detailed CV, transcripts, at least one letter of recommendation, and a letter of motivation. Citizens of Anglo-Saxon countries do not have to provide evidence of language proficiency. All others need to submit TOIC or TOEFL scores.

A pre-selection is carried out in March on the basis of the Erasmus+ application file and successful applicants are invited to a first audition in English late May/ early June.

At the end of this pre-selection, eligible applicants are invited to a second audition in English around mid-June, which can take place by videoconference for candidates abroad.

Final admissions are announced by the end of June.

— Tuition Fees

EU and non-EU students only have to pay usual national tuition fees (about 250 €) as well as Student Life and Campus Contribution (CVEC, about 100 €).

All international students are entitled to health insurance.

The "Assurance Maladie" (French Social Security) provides all international students with free health insurance. It can cover up to 70% of healthcare expenses.

Non-EU students and students without a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) must register on the Health Insurance website etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr (choose your language). This is compulsory and free of charge. European students with a EHIC card and Erasmus exchange students do not need to register online.
